Is it Uhl?

The following

I have a yellowish-green pitcher, same color inside and out, 8.5 inches tall and 5.5 inches diameter at the base, that has the trellis with grapes and leaves that appear identical to my bottom-marked Uhl blue-and-white pitchers. The bottom glazing is also typical of Uhl pitchers. It is not marked and does not have the bands of leaves that go around the top and bottom of my other Uhl pitchers. Can anyone tell me if this pitcher is Uhl or not?

CARD GETS FACELIFT

The first new membership card was issued on March 13 to Carol Thompson. The card is light-gray with blue silkscreening and replaces the brown card which began as the first card used by the club. The last card was retired to Carol's husband, Paul.

UHL IN THEM HILLS

Sue Uhl Maynard reports that her long dry spell is over. She purchased a blue #133 Egyptian jug for a reasonable $12.50 in California.

IN MEMORY OF...

Our sympathy is extended to Roger Shelton and his family over the recent death of Roger's mother. Also to Nelda Mendell and family for the loss of her sister, Ruth Patane. Nelda and Ruth both joined the Uhl Collector's Society at our first meeting on Oct. 12, 1985.

IN PRINT

Have you noticed something familiar lately as you've leafed through a magazine or newspaper?

The February 1990 issue of Country Living magazine contains two articles in which Uhl pottery is pictured, though not mentioned by name. "Historic Ohio Farmhouse" (beginning on page 76) pictures Uhl on page 77. "New Deal for an Old Barn" on page 98 offers some more. Thanks to Sue Maynard for the tip.

An ad for Jack Daniels shows a marked Evansville Uhl jug advertising Jack Daniels. Thanks goes to Roy Linde for the clipping.
