UHL COLLECTORYS SOCIETYNEWSLETTER

OCTOEER 1990
Autumn Greetirgs, UHL Collectors;
Autum = the begirming of the seasars for home/estate auctions in the Midwest. Mare Gpparturities to seamch through baxes, chicker coges and bams: scaming tables and wagom beds laded with "stuff" in search of a fird. Ard them the excitement wher, the auctioneers, helper holds that special piece high in the air and the bidding begins. Hope is high, the heart beats faster; iss there a charce that you" 11 get in ars the bidding? On, yes! Is it gaing ta be sald far a price that you car reascrably see yourself paying for that item? The aucticreer ories, "SOLD", to the highest bidder. The time for elation on defeat has come.

Auctions, a highlight amorg collectars of ald things. I'd meally appreciate it if you'd take a moment to jot down a mote and mail it to me for the mext newsletter of your experiences. Dr send a mate about prices in your area. Are you lackirg for a particular piece af UHL? Let us know. Do you have some UHL you wart to sell am trade? This rewsletter is your market made up of arly readers wha have an interest in the same commodity - - UHL--. In order ta keep this newsletter gairg, I reed your help. Thanks irs advarice.

You should all have received your UHL member address lists a few weeks ago. All members of cur saciety were mailed a capy. Hawever, there are a few members wha requested that their membershid informations not be published; this request has been hamared. This unpublished list has been givers arly to the president ard the farmer rewsletter editar. Sa, if you have beer alarmed at nat lar Cating your rame om the list, this is the measom. I might mentiom that the published $l i s t$ is given to auction firms whe request it in arder to semd you advertisements of outstamding offerings of UHL.

News of past-president Jim Cumimgs has come to me via letter from his wife, Lucy. Jim had a large tumar removed ar, Rugust 9 fram his throat. I"m glad to share with you that it was berign. He is recovering ricely. Eut I heard elsewhere that Iim and Lucy were at the Covered Eridge Festival in Marthwest Indiara. Glad you were able to make that special show, Jim.

UHL ism't easy to fird in Scutherm Califarmia. I have foumd a few pieces....far gacd prices. Hawever, I saw a blue and white quart size pitcher in an antique mall far a hefty pmice. Evidertly someane bought it because on my rext visit to that mall it was game. My favarite piece purchased cut here is a carteen advertisirg jug. I'll try ta include a picture af it inside.
F. S. Tharks a milliorg comtributors!!
