APRIL 1992

SPRING GREETINGS TO YOU ALL;

Again this month, you'll read comments from the membership. Thanks for your comments about the comments!!

Most of you have renewed by this time for this year. If you have not, this will be your last newsletter unless you renew before the annual meeting.

Effective this annual meeting, I am resigning my positions as Secretary-Treasurer and Newsletter Editor for U.C.S. I believe the club to be strong enough to "do it without me". It has been (and is) important to me to see the U.C.S. have a long and healthy life; I remember Anna Mary Feldmeyer telling me about a local club in Huntingburg that didn't last long. Ours has lasted and grown since June 1, 1985 from a handful to now over 300 active memberships.

Sometimes I feel that I am keeping you from using your talents for the club. This is the opportunity you may have been awaiting; please don't wait for someone to ask you if you will accept nomination for any office; rather come forward and let it be known that you are interested. Open offices this year will include Vice-Pres., Secretary-Treasurer, and a Board of Directors chair. The newsletter editorship is an appointment. I do not know at this time if there will be changes on the Commemorative Committee. You can contact anyone on the Board of Directors of your interest for consideration in any area. And, I'll be happy to help you in anyway I can.

Since I chose to write this page first, I don't know what all is going to be inside. But I hope it will be a relaxing break for you from your work while you sit and read this edition.

Please send your annual meeting reservations in right away so we can firm up the behind-the-scenes work that makes a comfortable meeting for all of us.

Happy hunting,

Sue Uhl Maynard, Editor

NOTE: THE U.C.S. NEWSLETTER IS PUBLISHED EVERY OTHER MONTH. IF YOU ARE NOT RECEIVING YOURS, OR KNOW OF SOMEONE ELSE WHO IS NOT, PLEASE LET ME KNOW.
